Specific Club: _____

By signing below I agree to purchase the 4-6 yearly club picks (if my membership begins after the club's year has begun, I agree to purchase the picks remaining in that club year). I give Fiction Addiction permission to email me about club selections and events involving cookbook authors.

I give Fiction Addiction permission to keep my payment information on file and to automatically charge my card each quarter. Books will be charged at retail cover price, including sales tax, and so the amount charged may vary from month to month.

I agree that my membership will automatically renew for the next club year unless I specifically request Fiction Addiction to cancel it. I agree that it is my responsibility to keep Fiction Addiction informed about any changes to my payment or contact information.
